SMALL ARMS & LIGHT WEAPONS

Counter Terror Expo 2011 Delivered:

7,745 International Attendees    79 Countries    67% of attendees were Buyers or Specifiers    400 Exhibitors

Small Arms And Light Weapons Focus For 2012:

Small Arms & Light Weapons provide close-quarter protection for a myriad of tasks including high risk policing, counter terrorist response and resolving siege and hostage situations for Tactical Ops, Police Firearm Units, SWAT, Private Security & Close Protection operatives. CTX 2012 will host an on-site Armoury for Exhibitors to store their live weapons, allowing them the ability to display weapons on stands.

Why Small Arms & Weapons focus for 2012?

- ❖ Armed Terrorist attacks continue to occur and remain a high level concern
- ❖ The option to give a considered armed response to these attacks are crucial in some circumstances
- ❖ Close quarter protection and private security have an on-going need to source firearms for certain security briefs
- ❖ Increasingly overseas travel to volatile and high risk locations often needs armed protection
- ❖ Increasingly there is a desire for Civil Defence and Enforcement to access tools and solutions previously only available to the Military – Clarion Events, as the organisers of both DSEi and Counter Terror Expo, are perfectly placed to help deliver a platform to enable this crossover capability between civil and military application

Weapons content at 2012:

- ❖ For the first time CTX 2012 will contain a fully secure and 24 hour Monitored Armoury for the storage of live weapons
- ❖ Seminar and Workshop session on capabilities, concerns and issues surrounding the arming of civil defence and enforcement officers
- ❖ Dedicated Marketing Campaign and Web site area
- ❖ DSEi Buyers invitation programme
